

For Immediate Release

October 29, 2008

Contact: Kim Young
800-448-9653 x217
events@wolfhaven.org

Here We Go Again!

U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service Proposes Delisting Wolves in the N. Rockies

On Friday, October 24, 2008, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (FWS) announced that they will be looking for public comment on their 2007 proposal to de-list the Northern Rocky Mountain population of gray wolves under the Endangered Species Act AGAIN. The FWS will be publishing details in a Federal Register notice coming out on October 28. FWS seeks additional information on a variety of topics related to the proposed delisting. For more details, see the link to their 10/24 press release and their 10/28 follow-up on our website www.WolfHaven.org.

For more information on this topic or wolf conservation contact Linda Saunders, Director of Conservation at lsaunders@wolfhaven.org or by calling 800-448-9653 x216
###

Wolf Haven Intl. has been working for wolf conservation around the Northwest and throughout the world since 1982. In addition to providing sanctuary for captive-born wolves, Wolf Haven educates over 30,000 visitors each year on the role of the wolf in the wild. Wolf Haven offers educational guided walking tours of its wolf sanctuary in Tenino Washington as well as off-site presentations to schools, community groups, and professional organizations.

For more information on Wolf Haven International or pictures to accompany this press release, please contact:
Kim Young, Marketing and Events Coordinator, 800-448-9653 x 217

