

Why are they endangered?

The following animals are either considered endangered by the state of Washington or by the federal government. Please list some reasons that may have led to their decrease in number.

Orcas Whale

Gray Wolf

Whooping Crane

Oregon Spotted Frog
