In beauty may she walk

BEAUTIFUL KIAWATHA passed away in early February. It came as a shock to all of us. Kiawatha was like a permanent fixture in our sanctuary, a constant. She and London were “stars” on our public tour route, always happy to greet visitors. They were the first wolves people saw during a sanctuary tour, and were together for five years. It was sad for all of the volunteers, staff, and visitors who saw & loved Ki, but no one sensed her loss more than London.

We have many fond memories of Ki; one of them was her love of digging. She was one of the biggest diggers in the sanctuary and once it took us 80 bags of cement to fill in one of her remodeling jobs.

Ki will be remembered as a gregarious and playful girl and London and the rest of the Wolf Haven family will miss her very much.

I find this Navajo Prayer a very fitting good bye from Kiawatha to us, until we meet again.

*In beauty may I walk
All day long may I walk Through the returning seasons may I walk Beautifully will I possess again
Beautifully birds,
Beautifully joyful birds*

*On the trail marked with pollen
may I walk
With grasshoppers about my feet
may I walk
With dew about my feet may I walk
With beauty may I walk
With beauty before me may I walk
With beauty behind me may I walk
With beauty above me may I walk With beauty all around me may I
In old age, wandering on a trail of beauty, lively, may I walk
In old age, wandering on a trail of beauty, living again, may I walk
It is finished in beauty.
It is finished in beauty.*
